Step 6 – Advise change to preservation status

*To be completed by Transition to Retirement
Pensioners only.*

Your transition to retirement benefit is subject to tax on the earnings of your investments. When a condition of release has been met, these benefits will move into a tax free environment. Once a Condition of Release mentioned below is advised to the trustee, your benefit will be transferred to the equivalent tax free investment options. If you wish to change your investment options please go to www.electricsuper.com.au and complete the Investment switch form. Once in Retirement Phase the balance will be assessed against the Transfer Balance cap. For further information on this cap please refer to www.ato.gov.au/super, or speak to your financial adviser.

Complete this section if your circumstances that affect the Preservation status of your Pension have changed.

The preserved portion of your pension cannot be released to unpreserved status until one of the following conditions have been met:

- You are at least 60 years of age and have ceased employment since attaining age 60;

OR

- You are between 55 and 60 years old, have ceased employment and have permanently retired from the workforce.

Permanently retired is defined as never being gainfully employed again for more than 10 hours per week. Gainful employment means employed or self-employed for gain or reward in any business, trade, profession, calling, occupation or employment. If you are eligible, please complete one of the following declarations and attach proof of age to allow your benefit payment to be processed (e.g. certified photocopy of your driver's licence, passport or birth certificate).

(select an option ✓)

Yes, I am at least 60 years of age and I have ceased employment since attaining age 60.

Yes, I am at least 55 years of age, have ceased employment and intend to permanently retire from the workforce.

Once you attain age 65 these investments will automatically transfer to the tax free investments and will count towards your transfer Balance Cap. For further information on this cap please refer to www.ato.gov.au/super, or speak to your financial adviser.

Step 7 – Providing proof of your identity

Should you need to provide certified proof of identity, the easiest way to do this is as follows:

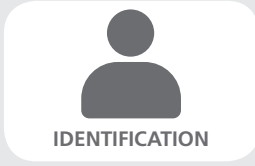

- photocopy both sides of your current drivers licence or passport
- take the photocopies of your ID and the original of the partly completed statutory declaration to Australia Post* or your local Police station
- ask them to certify your ID.

* to be able to certify your documents, the Australia Post employee must be a permanent employee of the Australian Postal Corporation with 2 or more years of continuous service in an office supplying postal services to the public. Australia Post will charge a small fee for each photocopy you need to get certified.

a police officer, sheriff or sheriff's officer can certify your ID.

The person certifying your ID documents will include the following details on the copy:

	←	A clear copy of the document that identifies you (i.e. your driver's licence (front and back) or passport)
Certified true copy	←	Write or stamp 'certified true copy' of the original document
J. Sample	←	The authorised person's signature
Mr John Sample	←	Full name, qualification and registration number (if applicable) of the authorised person
Justice of Peace	←	Date of certification (within 12 months of receipt)
Registration No.123456789	←
Date: 01/02/2015	←

Alternatively, you can refer to the Completing Proof of Identity fact sheet on the fund's website at www.electricsuper.com.au for a list of other people who can certify your ID document(s) and witness your statutory declaration.

If you don't have a driver's license or passport

You will need to provide a certified copy of one document from each of the following groups:

- Birth certificate or birth extract¹
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth
- Pension card issued by the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) that entitles the person to financial benefits

AND

- Letter from the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) or other Government body in the last 12 months regarding a Government assistance payment
- Tax Office Notice of Assessment issued in the last 12 months
- Rates notice from local council issued in the last 3 months
- Electricity, gas or water bill issued in the last 3 months
- Landline phone bill issued in the last 3 months (mobile phone bills will not be accepted)

¹ Translation

If your identification is written in a language other than English, the identification must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd. (NAATI) at the level of Professional Translator or higher (or an equivalent accreditation), to translate from a language other than English into English.
